ROMANIA
MINISTRY OF INTERNAL AFFAIRS
INFORMATION AND PUBLIC RELATION DEPARTMENT

romania2019.eu

Piața Revoluției nr. 1A, București, tel/fax: 021/264.86.17email: comunicare@mai.gov.ro

Informal meeting of the home affairs ministers from the EU member states, February 6-7, 2019

Program

Venue: The Palace of Parliament, Bucharest
Meeting chaired by: Carmen Dan, Minister of Internal Affairs – February 7th

Wednesday, February 6

For the journalist arrived in Romania on February 6th, the Ministry of Internal Affairs organizes a tour of the Palace of Parliament.
The tour will be from 3.00 to 5.00 PM, Romanian time, and aims to accommodate journalists with areas for the press, press conference rooms and areas where the official works will take place on the next day.

Home Affairs Session

Thursday, February 7

08.30 - Arrivals (live streaming)
08.30 - Doorstep/ Handshake
09.20 - 9.30 -Tour de table/ Image Opportunities
09.30 - Starting of the working sessions

- Agenda adoption
- First Session: Terrorism
- Second Session: Police Cooperation
- Working lunch: Schengen Area
- Third Session: Migration and asylum
- Other topics

17.15 – Press Conference.

During the official discussions, to which the press has no access, the journalists have the possibility to carry out two documentary visits to the Border Police Coordination Centre and the Bucharest Integrated Municipal Centre for Emergency Situation, as follows:

- 11.00 – Departure from the Palace of the Parliament to Border Police Headquarters for documentation at the Operational Coordination Centre.
- 12.00 – return to the Palace of the Parliament for lunch;
- 14.00 – departure from the Palace of the Parliament to the Bucharest Integrated Municipal Centre for Emergency Situation;
- 15.00 – return to the Palace of the Parliament.

The hours are estimative and are subject to change.